

Friends of Narrabeen Lagoon Catchment

October 2009

www.narrabeenlagoon.org.au

7pm Monday November 23
Upstairs at the Tramshed:

Protecting your Patch

through Elanora destroying nearly a dozen homes before jumping Narrabeen Lagoon to threaten the Friends November Forum focuses on this issue and will provide vital information to help you prepare

Expert speakers include George Sheppard, Deputy at the Rural Fire Service in Terrey Hills and Chris Grudnoff, Northern Beaches Area Manager, NSW

Adam Burrowes, Team Leader Natural Environment Projects for Warringah Council, will outline how

We expect a big crowd so register now by emailing Refreshments will

U theme "Mountain Bikers and Bush Tracks" See the world premiere of the new DVD being created

CZÜWJU`m'U'@U[ccb'U[U]b'bc k°

Thanks to all of you who made submissions, the Geographical Names Board has announced that the

What happens when the grant runs out?

V@^ÁÁFÈJ { AW!àæ } ÁÜ~ •cæâ } æàâ|æc^ ÁÖ!æ } cÉÁ, @â&@Á@æ•Á funded both on-ground works and community sustainability education in the Narrabeen Lagoon

We have asked Warringah and Pittwater Councils to allocate funding and we are looking for grants for which either Councils or Friends

Dredging plans in limbo

Friends supports plans to dredge Narrabeen Lagoon for recreational purposes, provided adequate years ago, as a result of public pressure, Pittwater and Warringah Councils agreed selective dredging

A new community based organisation, Narrabeen Lagoon Stakeholders Action has been suggested

U^c^/AÖ^^@A, | { â } APæ!|æà^^}ÁŠæ [[] Á&æc&@ { ^ } cÁOXOAEÁ & [{ ^c [Ác@^AØ^à! } æ! ^GGÁØ [i } { Ác [Á^ÁÁcÁ

