Zoom Meeting 7pm February 22

Wonderful Wildlife near Narrabeen Lagoon

Jayden Walsh is a keen observer of nature and has some stunning photographs and information to share.

The focus will be on wildlife that lives near the Narrabeen Lagoon and that, if you are fortunate, you may see when on the Narrabeen Lagoon

Eastern Pygmy Possum on *Grevillea buxifolia

Register to participate in this Zoom session and you might find your future walks around Narrabeen Lagoon foreshore more interesting than before because you can be looking out for evidence of the wildlife that Jayden is preparing to reveal to you.

Register by emailing:

FREE PADDLE: Clean Up Narrabeen Lagoon - Sunday March 7

It's Clean Up Australia Day when we "give back". This is a fun and worthwhile activity, supported by Northern Beaches Council. We'll get into our boats and focus on the shoreline between the parks and reserves. These are the areas that Council's refuse collection crews cannot reach because the only access is by water. We'll provide bags, gloves and other equipment and you get to pick up those pesky bottles, plastic bags and other rubbish that spoils this paradise. A nice, easy couple of hours on Sunday morning with a fun group. Everyone gets into Clean Up Australia Day, so sign up and join us now. FREE kayak hire for the first ten to sign up. This event is Paddle NSW Covid-19 compliant.

To register email Tony Carr at tonycarr@ozemail.com.au.

Narrabeen Lagoon Circumnavigation by kayak - 1 to 4pm Sunday February 21

Narrabeen Lagoon is one of Sydney's most spectacular and unique waterways. See the over 100 Black Swans that have taken up residence on the Lagoon and explore Sydney's newly proclaimed Narrabeen State Park with Friends of Narrabeen Lagoon Catchment's former President, Tony Carr. Depending on the conditions, we'll head east towards the ocean beach or westward to beautiful Middle and Deep Creeks. Deep Creek attracts migratory birds from as far away as Russia. We'll show you an amazing secret relic from World War 2 and take a break at a lovely, sandy swimming spot. Come on your own or bring your partner for a relaxing, fun and informative afternoon. Suit first timers - grade easy - tuition provided. Friends current financial members free with their own suitable kayak, otherwise rent a kayak for just $88 per person. This event is Paddle NSW Covid-19 compliant. To enquire or register email tonycarr@ozemail.com.au.
